MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Ravi Deo
Executive Director

The mission of the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board (FRTIB) is to administer the Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) solely in the interest of participants and beneficiaries. This mission remains our highest priority and guides everything we do.

The TSP has served participants for nearly 40 years. As we look ahead, our focus remains clear: improving retirement outcomes for participants. We will do this by providing strong investment options, expanding access to information, and delivering tools and services that help participants make informed decisions throughout their financial journeys.

Achieving meaningful improvements in participant outcomes requires a strong, adaptable organization. We are committed to a culture of continuous improvement and organizational excellence that drives sustainable, high-performing results. Through disciplined execution, data-driven decision-making, and a steadfast commitment to accountability and fiduciary responsibility, we will continue to enhance our operations and deliver value.

Technology is a critical enabler of this vision. We will advance technology solutions to increase agility, improve security, and increase access to timely insights. By leveraging modern platforms, strong partnerships, and innovative approaches, we will enhance service delivery and ensure the resilience and reliability participants expect.

At the core of our success are our people. We are committed to fostering a high-performing workforce through a culture of trust, accountability, recognition, and empowerment. By investing in our workforce, we enable employees to perform at their best and deliver exceptional results for participants.

The FRTIB Strategic Plan reflects the insights and expertise of our Board members, leadership, staff, and stakeholders. Developed through collaboration and informed by those we serve, it builds on our strong foundation and positions the Agency to evolve in a dynamic environment while remaining steadfast in our commitment to participants and beneficiaries.

We are proud to share this plan and remain committed to helping participants achieve a more secure and dignified retirement.

As both Executive Director and a TSP participant, I share the same confidence in the Plan's future and the importance of the mission we carry out every day.

Sincerely,

INTRODUCTION

This Strategic Plan defines the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board's (FRTIB) direction for administering the Thrift Savings Plan (TSP). It articulates our desired future state, reinforces our core values, and outlines the strategic goals and objectives that will guide our work.

Building on the progress of previous plans, this Strategic Plan informs how we make decisions about the resources required to achieve our goals and objectives, including budget, technology, and workforce investments, to ensure alignment with our highest priorities. It provides a clear framework for prioritizing efforts, aligning resources, and will be implemented through a strategic roadmap that translates goals into actionable initiatives.

Throughout the five-year strategic planning cycle, we will monitor and evaluate performance, using data and insights to inform adjustments, strengthen outcomes, and respond to a changing environment. We will build on our successes and continuously refine our approach to improve how we deliver on our mission.

About the FRTIB

The FRTIB was established by the Federal Employees' Retirement System Act of 1986 (FERSA) to administer the TSP, a core component of today's retirement system for federal employees and members of the uniformed services.

Today, the TSP is the largest defined contribution plan in the United States, serving over 7 million participants and managing approximately $1 trillion in assets. This scale brings both opportunities and responsibilities: delivering strong investment options, safeguarding assets, and supporting participants in achieving retirement security.

As the retirement landscape evolves, shaped by changing demographics, rising expectations for digital experiences, and increasing market complexity, we continue to build on the foundation established in the previous strategic cycle. This includes strengthening our infrastructure, advancing our operating model, and enhancing service delivery to better meet participants' needs.

The FY 2027–31 Strategic Plan deepens our focus on participant outcomes, continuous improvement, and modernized service delivery. We remain committed to enhancing retirement readiness, delivering a secure and seamless participant experience, and maintaining the flexibility needed to respond to emerging challenges and opportunities.
